

A diagram of a protein structure, likely a myoglobin molecule, showing a heme prosthetic group (red) and a central iron atom (yellow). Two alpha-helices are highlighted: one in cyan (top) and one in magenta (bottom). The protein backbone is shown in grey.